R. H. Zorn, of Gibsonburg, Ohio, who has been over at the Great West camp for some time past, came over to Kingman Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. E. M. Taggart, of San Francisco, is visiting with her daughters, Mrs. H. W. Kemper and Miss Margerie. This is Mrs. Taggart's first visit to Kingman in twelve years.

Miss Mabel McFadden, who has been trying the Kingman climate for the past three months, departed for her home at Santa Ana, California, Wednesday last.

Dr. Cowie was called to the Windmill Wednesday evening to attend Mr. Faucher, who was reported to be at the point of death. He returned yesterday and reported the sick man well on the road to recovery.

Charles Gaacey, for years superintendent of the properties of Joseph Wharton, at El Dorado Canyon, was in Chloride a few days ago accompanied by his wife. He reports mining matters very dull at the Canyon.

District Attorney Dickson, Sheriff Lovin and Deputy Mineral Surveyor McCardell visited the scene of the Wellbourne killing, the other side of Union Pass, Thursday, and made a thorough examination of the surroundings of the sanguinary life and death struggle.

E. W. Baker, one of the best photographers on the coast, and an old timer in Kingman, arrived in town yesterday for a short visit with friends. He will visit Vivian and Gold Road and will establish a gallery in each place. Mr. Baker can be depended to give the best of satisfaction in all classes of photographic work.

The A. & U. railroad people are preparing to put up station buildings at a point west of Cerbat for the accommodation of the business of that town. Monday last there was shipped to the Golden Gem mine and unloaded at Cerbat station nearly a carload of supplies. In future all supplies for the camp will be shipped via the A. & U.

Capt. Alphonso Smith, who at one time navigated the lower waters of the Colorado river, died at his home in Los Angeles last Saturday evening. Capt. Smith owned large concessions in the state of Sonora, Mexico, and it was his ambition to build a railroad from Yuma to connect his vast tracts of land with the outside world. He operated a line of steamers on the Gulf of California and many flat boats on the river. A year or so ago he purchased a steamer from the Santa Ana mining company, of this place. He was well known in this country.

Edward M. Sturges died in El Paso on the 16th of this month of pneumonia. Mr. Sturges had recently sold an interest in the El Tigre mine, in the state of Chihuahua, Mexico, for which he obtained the sum of 100,000, besides holding large interests in the property. He opened a mining office in El Paso, but afterward removed to San Diego. Many people in this county knew deceased under the name of Ed. Mervin Sturges. He had been married in the State of New York, but having a disagreement with his wife obtained a divorce and came west. He was a telegraph operator and was considered a very bright man. Dr. E. D. Smith, now of New York, staked Sturges and a man named Grant to go to Mexico on a prospecting tour. The men found a property and, we believe it was sold or is under bond to people for a large sum. While awaiting the result of the bonding of the first property Sturges, Grant and others while prospecting found the El Tigre, which brought them all independent fortunes.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and 1$ at H. H. Watkins.

Arthur Alman, who is now in business in Needles, passed through Kingman Monday, on his way to Chloride, returning Wednesday afternoon. He has disposed of his holdings in Chloride and will permanently reside in Needles.

Ed. Cain, one of the old time miners of this county, died at the hospital last Tuesday evening. Death was due to general debility. Mr. Cain was reputed to be one of the best miners and mine managers in the territory and was known in practically every mining camp in the west. He was a kindly, good natured man and had friends all over Arizona. His funeral took place Thursday afternoon.

W. T. Sanger, a well known mining man, died at San Jacinto hot springs last Tuesday evening of rheumatism of the heart. Mr. Sanger came to this county some months ago from Tonopah, Nevada, in company of Mike Rice, and prospected the country near the Great West mine. He came to Kingman about a month ago and sold out his prospecting outfit last Saturday, leaving the same evening for the springs. He had been suffering some time with rheumatism. Deceased was a bright, energetic gentleman, who made friends wherever he went. His death will be regretted by all who knew him.

Gives Health Vigor and Tone.

Herbine is a boon for sufferers from anemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived. The languor is diminished. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs. Belle H. Shirel, Middlesborough, Ill., writes: "I have been troubled with liver complaint and poor blood, and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbine. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime." 50c at H. H. Watkins.
